_____. This adult is responsible for the Child's care and supervision until the Child is returned to a Signing Parent or to another adult a Signing Parent names in writing.

If the Child travels alone: the Child will be brought to departure by _____ and met on arrival by _____ (phone _____). No one else may collect the Child unless a Signing Parent approves it in writing.

5. TRIP DETAILS

Purpose: _____.

The Child leaves on _____ and returns on _____.

Destinations, dates and where the Child will stay: _____

Travel arrangements (carrier, flight or train numbers): _____

6. MEDICAL AUTHORIZATION (OPTIONAL)

If no Signing Parent can be reached after a reasonable effort, the Signing Parent(s) authorize _____, as the adult in charge of the Child, to consent to (check one): [ ] emergency and urgent medical, dental and hospital care only; [ ] emergency care and ordinary care such as checkups, prescription medicine and treatment of minor illness or injury. This does not cover elective surgery or treatment that can safely wait. A provider may rely on a copy of this signed form.

Allergies, conditions, medicines, doctor and insurance: _____

7. EMERGENCY CONTACT AND LIMITS

If the adult in charge cannot reach a Signing Parent, contact _____ (name, relationship and phone).

This consent applies only to the trip above, plus any delay outside the travelers' control. It does not change custody, parenting time or any court order, and it does not allow anyone to move the Child's home or extend the trip. A Signing Parent may cancel it at any time by telling the adult in charge, in writing if possible.

Documents carried with this form: _____

Note: no U.S. law requires this form for ordinary travel, but airlines and border officers often ask for it. Notarizing it is recommended for trips abroad, and some countries (Mexico among them) have their own rules for children leaving without a parent.
