ODOMETER DISCLOSURE STATEMENT

Federal law (and State law, if applicable) requires that you state the mileage upon transfer of ownership. Failure to complete or providing a false statement may result in fines and/or imprisonment.

This Odometer Disclosure Statement records the mileage of the motor vehicle described below when its ownership is transferred (49 U.S.C. § 32705; 49 C.F.R. Part 580). Date of transfer: _____.

1. THE VEHICLE

Year: _____ Make: _____ Model: _____

Body type: _____ Vehicle identification number (VIN): _____

Certificate of title number (if any): _____ State of transfer: _____

2. THE PARTIES

Transferor (seller or current owner): _____, current address _____.

Transferee (buyer or new owner): _____, current address _____.

3. ODOMETER CERTIFICATION

On the date of transfer, the odometer reads _____ miles (no tenths).

By signing below, the Transferor certifies the one statement that is checked:

[ ] (1) To the best of the Transferor's knowledge, the odometer reading reflects the actual mileage of the vehicle.

[ ] (2) To the best of the Transferor's knowledge, the odometer reading reflects the amount of mileage in excess of the designed mechanical limit of the odometer.

[ ] (3) The odometer reading is NOT the actual mileage and should not be relied upon. WARNING: ODOMETER DISCREPANCY.

4. TRANSFEREE'S ACKNOWLEDGMENT

By signing below, the Transferee acknowledges receiving this statement and being aware of the odometer certification made by the Transferor, and will make a copy of the signed statement available to the Transferor.

5. IMPORTANT INFORMATION

When the vehicle is titled in the Transferor's name, federal rules require the mileage disclosure on the certificate of title itself (49 C.F.R. § 580.5(c)). This statement is a supporting record and does not replace the entry on the title.
